

*"Hold high the torch; you did not light its glow.
'Twas given you by other hands, you know;
'Tis yours to keep it burning bright;
Yours to pass on, when you no more need light.
For there are other feet that we must guide
And other forms go marching by our side.
Their eyes are watching every tear and smile, And efforts which we think not worth the while May be, perhaps, the very things they need;
Actions to which their souls will take most heed,
So that in turn they'll hold it high and say,
'I saw another carry it, this way.'"*
